Lots of love for disabled pets
A couple of months ago, a few animal bloggers made mention of a book titled "Almost Perfect: Disabled Pets and the People Who Love Them." It's a slim volume, edited by Mary A. Shafer, a freelance writer who explains in an introduction that she was inspired by a "sweet kitten" named Idgie. "She had come to us under the most unusual of circumstances," Shafer writes.....

Pets are great stress busters
An animal at home speaks volume on unconditional love. A few minutes alone with pets does more to help a person's stress level than discussing about their troubles with others. Pets are kept not only for security but for companionship as well...
