The Chronicles of Quack

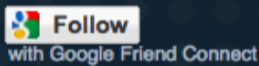

THE CHRONICLES OF QUACK

Welcome! A duck that has turned 3 years old definitely deserves her own blog---don't you think so?

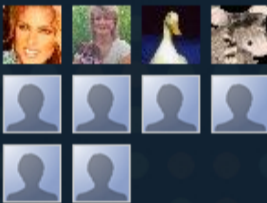

Lemon and I would like to welcome you to her blog. We call it "The Chronicles of Quack".

Lemon and I will be posting now and then to update you on what's new. We'll also be quacking about books we like, places we've been, eggs we've laid---well, eggs Lemon has laid anyway. There may even be a joke or two to quack you up!

about me

Lemon the Duck

I am a crested Pekin duck. I have some special challenges because of neurological issues. I have some wonderful friends and equipment that help me to be one happy little duck.

Lemon: What are you reading?

Laura: "Almost Perfect: Disabled Pets and the People Who Love Them"

Lemon: I see there is a dog with a scooter on the cover ---I have a scooter too. Does he have challenges?

Laura: Yes Lem, all of the stories in Almost Perfect are about animals with disabilities and the people who love them. Each one brings so much joy and inspires the people around them---just like you do Lemon!

Lemon: Is it hard work to take care of a pets with challenges?

Laura: You bet, and they're worth every second. People tell me what a lucky duck you are to have me to take care of you, but like the people in this book, I feel lucky to have you in my life. All of the stories in this book show the wonderful animal-human bond. These stories illustrate what you and I already know---that we can all be happy, no matter what are challenges may be.

Lemon: Sometimes we just need a little help from our friends.

Laura: Right.

Lemon: Is this a book a duck would enjoy?

Laura: Every duck (and person), young and old will be inspired by these stories.

Lemon: Will you read it to me?

Laura: Of course Lem! We'll start with Tuesdays with Tux....

Lemon: quacks... J
